Councilman Spark asked what would happen if someone wanted a badge in December. Councilman Wellington said it's not worth it. The park is there for the kids. Councilman Mikuletzky said he was talking to other councilmen about the bay beach. He said the beach gets closed down a lot in the summer and was told that it only happened one time. Councilwoman Reynolds said that it was from people not picking up after their dogs and heavy rain that washes it into the bay. Kelly Phillips, 1009 Central Ave., asked how much of that is dog waste. She sees said that there are many feral cats defecating all over the place and the bay beach is a giant litter box for them. She said it is a real health issue. Mayor Larson said that he would like to get money in the 2017 budget to handle raccoons. Barry Mescolotto said that the raccoons are very destructive.
